Prayer of Confession

O God of love, God of power, we have heard your promises of abundant life and have been afraid to believe them. We have worshiped you with our lips but have reserved parts of ourselves for our own purposes and plans. We are bound by our need for absolute certainty and so we often miss your living presence in the surprises of life. Renew us by turning our trust to you again.

People: And also with you.

(As worshipers, we come from diverse experiences and points of view. We have different racial, educational, and economic backgrounds. Yet we are all one in Christ. We symbolize this as we exchange with one another, by words and gestures, signs of peace and reconciliation such as, "The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.")

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

A Time for Meditation on the Word

*Hymn: For Everyone Born (please see insert)

FOR EVERYONE BORN

Freedom School Testimonial

Madison Lundy

*Affirmation of Faith (from Confession of Belbar)

Evan Black

Leader: We believe that God has revealed himself as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people;

People: that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged.

Leader: We believe that God calls the church to follow him in this;

People: for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry.

Leader: We believe that for God pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;

People: We believe that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right;

Leader: We believe that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things,

People: that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Leader: We believe that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands,

People: namely against injustice and with the wronged; that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

All: Jesus is Lord. This we proclaim; this we believe.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Offering of Our Gifts and Lives

Offertory: Lord I Lift Your Name on High

Lord I lift your name on high, Lord I love to sing your praise. I'm so glad you're in my life, I'm so glad you came to save us. You came from heaven to earth to show the way. From the earth to the cross, my debt to pay. From the cross to the grave, from the grave to the sky. Lord I lift your name on high.

WELCOME: If you are visiting with us today, please sign the Fellowship Pad at the end of your pew. We pray the hour will be meaningful to you and you will come and worship with us again. Everyone is cordially invited to a time of fellowship in the Longstreth Auditorium following the worship service.

THE LITURGY: Today's Worship service has many moving parts, just as God's creation does. It weaves together liturgy from the 223rd General Assembly, music and dance and leadership from Freedom School, while incorporating people from the First Presbyterian Church in Germantown, as we all worship and serve the Lord together. It is my prayer that it joyously praises God, while inspiring and uplifting us all, as we come together in the Lord's powerful presence.

THE MUSIC: Today's anthems and Offertory are being sung by our Freedom School Scholars, under the direction of Gospel Choir Director, Sara Carter-Blanford.

COFFEE HOUR: This week's host: Rachel Circle. Next week's host: Praise and Evangelism Committee. ### July Session Highlights

Pastor Segers led a discussion around the idea of doing more with fewer committees while moving toward activities that would encourage congregation members to become involved with specific, single goal project teams. Session was asked to think about whether their committees could possibly integrate with other committee(s) on certain projects.

Session members were asked to comment on the GA declaration that had been used as the Affirmation of Faith the two previous Sundays. Thoughts, feelings, and opinions were offered and heard with an open and respectful attitude. It was agreed that a congregational listening session would be helpful to engage the entire congregation in the conversation.

CE Chair, Bob Seed, announced a men’s breakfast has been scheduled for the early fall.

Gloria Bethea reminded Session that the Mission and Outreach Committee-sponsored Shredding and Electronic Recycling event will take place on July 14.

Session voted to approve the Standard Terms of Employment letters developed by Ingrid Harris’s Personnel team.

Administrative and Finance Chair, Joe Leube, advised that Jim Thompson has prepared a timeline for various stewardship activities.

Pastor Segers and two other congregation members will be travelling to St Louis in September to participate in the Stewardship Kaleidoscope. Kaleidoscope is a three-day event with speakers and workshops covering topics such as annual stewardship, planned giving, theology of giving, current trends in stewardship, capital campaigns and generosity.

Property Chair, Marc DiNardo, reported on flooding problems in the gym and the time consuming and labor intensive cleanup required after severe storms. Marc also advised that the 2018 budget for church maintenance has been exhausted. There is a need to locate sources to fund anticipated repairs and required maintenance for the remainder of this year.
